

---

Sunday, August 7, 2005

Back

The Halifax Herald Limited

---

High bacteria levels closes Kinsmen Park beach

Kinsmen Beach in Lower Sackville is closed to the public because of water quality problems.

Regular testing at the First Lake beach shows high bacteria levels, Halifax Regional Municipality said Friday in a release.

The city has posted No Swimming signs, and staff will be on duty during regular hours to ensure people are aware of the closure and stay out of the water.

---

Back

---

Copyright © 2005 The Halifax Herald Limited